Charles Evan grew up in Scotland and since he was a child had every intention of being a Veterinarian. He loved animals, and was known around his village to pick up strays and nurse them back to health. He lucked out when he found a room to rent from a business man, Paul Mallory, who was gone most of the time, letting him have run of the house for a fraction of the cost. His life changed when he came home early to find that Reginald had escaped and was in Paul's room, he quickly broke into the room, to get the snake out, when Paul and another man returned unexpectedly.
